Reference: Nomination of IAG Inter-Commission Committees and IAG QuGe Presidents (2027-2031)

Dear colleagues,
According to the IAG's Statutes and Bylaws, the Presidents of the following IAG Components

- Inter-Commission Committee on Climate Research - ICCC
- Inter-Commission Committee on Theory - ICCT
- Inter-Commission Committee on Marine Geodesy - ICCM
- Project Novel Sensors and Quantum Technology for Geodesy - QuGe

for the next IAG term (2027-2031) will be appointed by the IAG Executive committee in early 2027. These IAG components are long-term. Their Presidents may hold office for maximum of 2 IAG terms (eight years in total).

The current Presidents and the Steering Committees of the above-mentioned IAG components are kindly inviting you to submit nominations for

- President of the ICCC (2027-2031).
  The current President Annette Eicker is not eligible any longer.
- President of the ICCT (2027-2031).
  The current President Mattia Crespi is eligible and may be nominated for the next term.
- President of the ICCM (2027-2031).
  The current President Valérie Ballu is eligible and may be nominated for the next term.
- President of the QuGe Project (2027-2031).
  The current President Jürgen Müller is eligible and may be nominated for the next term.

The nominations should be sent by email to the respective current Presidents (see below).
The deadline to submit nominations is 15 January 2027.

Thank you in advance for your prompt attention. Looking forward to receiving your nominations.

Sincerely,

A. Eicker (ICCC): annette.eicker@hcu-hamburg.de
M. Crespi (ICCT): mattia.crespi@uniroma1.it
V. Ballu (ICCM): valerie.ballu@univ-lr.fr
J. Müller (QuGe): mueller@ife.uni-hannover.de
